

The College of Liberal Arts & Sciences

Call for nominations for the

2026 Dean's Faculty Excellence Award

The Dean's Faculty Excellence Award is the College's most prestigious faculty honor, presented annually to an exemplary faculty member who has demonstrated dedicated years of service within higher education and the College of Liberal Arts & Science and who has excelled in teaching, research, and service.

Eligibility:

Faculty members are invited to nominate a faculty member in the College of Liberal Arts & Sciences (CLAS) or to self-nominate.

Criteria:

Please use the form below to explain why you feel this nominee deserves to be awarded the Dean's Faculty Excellence Award. Please use specific examples of their meaningful contributions through research, teaching and service to discuss the impact the nominee has had on higher education and the College of Liberal Arts & Sciences at the University of Kansas.

The aim of the Dean's Faculty Excellence Award is to recognize an outstanding faculty member who exemplifies great teaching in and out of the classroom, impactful research, and dedicated service. The recipient of this award is someone who selflessly gives of their time and experience and who has built and maintained collaborative relationships with faculty, students and staff in the College and across other schools and units demonstrating continuous effort towards the University of Kansas' mission "To educate leaders, build healthy communities, and make discoveries that change the world."

Deadline and Nomination Procedure:

Please use the form on the next page for your nomination. Complete nominations must be submitted to collegeawards@ku.edu by 5 p.m. on February 13, 2026.

Please include the award name and nominee name in the subject line of the email.
